

The Trio Group, since 1978, has been supplying quality leather goods, to some of the most established names in the international markets, across the globe, under different brand names.

With an existing production capacity of 600,000 units per annum for bags and another 600,000 units per annum of small leather goods, our product range is wide, varying from women's leather handbags and purses to men's folios and backpacks, and all in between, including, credit card holders, passport covers, travel accessories, key cases and much more.

We have well-established and dependable supply chain sourcing from LWG & REACH complaint manufacturers from India and abroad.

Trio Group follows International social norms, establishing its commitment, by being certified to SA 8000:2014 and SEDEX SMETA 4P audited.

Awarded year after year by the Council of Leather Exports, INDIA (CLE) for export performance. The latest being CLE award for one of the top export performances of 2018.

